Cabinet Painting: Save Thousands on Kitchen Remodeling

- Cabinet painting can refresh your kitchen without a full remodel.
- It works best when your cabinets are sturdy but look outdated.
- For many Charlotte homes, a new cabinet color can make the whole kitchen feel brighter.

Why Cabinet Painting Beats Replacement

- Cabinet replacement often means demolition, new materials, and a longer project.
- Cabinet painting can save 50–70% compared with replacement.
- Painting is a smart choice when you like your layout, but not the cabinet finish.

How Cabinet Painting Saves Cost

- Cabinets are often one of the biggest kitchen remodel costs.
- Painting keeps your existing cabinet boxes and reduces waste.
- It is a useful upgrade before selling, renting, or refreshing a Charlotte-area home.

What Professional Cabinet Painting Includes

- The process starts with cleaning, degreasing, sanding, and priming.
- Doors, drawers, and hardware are removed or protected.
- Professional spraying can create a smoother, furniture-like finish.

Why Durability Matters

- Kitchen cabinets face grease, moisture, fingerprints, and daily cleaning.
- Charlotte humidity makes prep and primer very important.
- Satin and semi-gloss finishes help balance style, durability, and easy cleaning.
